Claims Not Involving Auctioneer: Any controversy between Buyer and Owner shall be settled by arbitration between Buyer and Owner pursuant to the following procedure: Upon Auctioneer's determination that a claim under such Conditions of Sale has been timely and properly presented by Buyer pursuant to these Conditions of Sale, and upon notice from Auctioneer, Buyer and Owner shall each select a licensed veterinarian at its own expense. If such veterinarians fail to agree promptly as to the validity of the claim, said veterinarians, with the approval of Buyer and Owner, shall agree upon a third licensed veterinarian. If no agreement can be reached, Auctioneer shall select the third veterinarian. Should Buyer prevail in the arbitration of a dispute and thereafter wish to return the horse and receive a refund, all fees associated with the sale become immediately due and payable to Auctioneer from Owner. Any costs incurred by Auctioneer for care of the horse during the resolution of the dispute shall be paid to Auctioneer by the non-prevailing party prior to release of such horse by Auctioneer. Moreover, if a Buyer gives notice of a dispute hereunder or refuses to pay for a horse because of a claim of misrepresentation, fraud or breach of any of Owner's limited warranties, Auctioneer, in its sole discretion, may elect not to pay Owner the net proceeds of the sale of the horse(s) in question until the claim has been finally resolved and the proceeds of the sale have been received by Auctioneer. The prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable and necessary attorney fees and the costs of arbitration from the non-prevailing party.

B. Arbitration shall be initiated by written demand of the party seeking arbitration. A decision of the arbitrator or arbitrators shall be final, conclusive and binding on the parties, and judgment may be entered thereon in the District Court of Parker County, Texas, to enforce such decision and the benefits thereof. Any arbitration held in accordance with this paragraph shall be private and confidential, and no person shall be entitled to attend the hearings except the arbitrator(s), the stenographer (if one is requested), the parties and the attorneys for the parties and/or representatives designated by the parties. The matters submitted for arbitration, the hearings and proceedings thereunder and the arbitration award shall be kept and maintained in strictest confidence by the parties and shall not be discussed, disclosed or communicated to any person except as required by law or as necessary to enforce rights thereunder. The prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable and necessary attorney fees and the costs of arbitration from the non-prevailing party.

C. SPECIAL STALLION SEASON BENEFIT AUCTION

During the

2024 WESTERN BLOODSTOCK MID-YEAR CUTTING HORSE DIGITAL SALE

The unprecedented Texas Panhandle wildfires of February and March 2024 reduced more than 1.2 million acres of grassland to ashes and cost the lives of more than 15,000 head of cattle. Firefighters, families, neighbors and ranch hands worked tirelessly and continuously throughout the 20-day inferno to protect lives, property, and livestock.

Four months later, costs from cattle loss and rebuilding continue to mount, and Western Bloodstock, the leader in Western performance horse sales, is reaching out with a special auction of stallion seasons to benefit victims of the wildfires.

The auction will be held on Saturday, July 20th, during the 2024 Western Bloodstock Mid-Year Cutting Horse Digital Sale. Proceeds from the auction will go to the Working Ranch Cowboys Association Foundation's Crisis Fund, which will distribute the proceeds to those in need.

"We feel that this auction offers people a great opportunity to access breedings to great stallions, while coming to the aid of our ranching community," said Western Bloodstock's Jeremy Barwick.

Long-term setbacks due to the wildfires include lost grazing; reduced calf crops due to the loss of young heifers and pregnant cows; as well as rebuilding and repair of destroyed and damaged ranch infrastructure, including fences, barns, corrals and windmills.

"The timing for this auction at the Mid-Year Sale is perfect because this will be when people are really feeling the impact as they are gearing up for the fall and winter months and wondering how they will make it," said April Bonds, of Bonds Ranches. "This shows that all aspects of the Western community are there for the victims of the fire."

Bonds can speak with authority about the needs of the victims. Her family's ranch in the Panhandle county of Hemphill was hit by a wildfire in 2017 that affected parts of five states.

"It went right up to the doorstep of the houses where the headquarters were," Bonds recalled of the 2017 disaster. "Ninety-eight percent of the ranch burned and we lost half our herd.

"But this fire (2024) was so different in so many ways because everybody was on fire [at the same time] and communications were down for hours. It was all over chaos. Lots of people lost houses, and a lot of our neighbors are wondering what the future will hold and whether or not they want to try and rebuild again."

Andy Holloway, a Hemphill County extension agent for Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service, in an article for The Texas Tribune, attested that "Historic homes and ranches burned to the ground - literally museums to our region and way of life. Genetics bred into cows over decades and generations have been lost. Historic trees used as land markers by the early pioneers are gone. This is the hidden cost that deeply affects our ranchers and their way of life."

"I've never met a group of people who have as much strength of character, spirit of community, and generosity to help a neighbor as these people of the Panhandle, affirmed Bonds. "And to see them shaken to their core breaks your heart.

"That's why I commend Jeremy Barwick for doing this benefit auction. It's a reminder to all these good folks to not give up, that the Western world is coming together and saying, you are not forgotten, we support you. It means the world to all of us."

Because the Working Ranch Cowboys Association, with its motto 'A hand up not a hand out,' represents the spirit of the Western community, its Foundation Crisis Fund was chosen for distributing the proceeds from the Stallion Service auction by Barwick, who noted, "There are a lot of people right now who need a hand up."

The mission of the WRCA Foundation's Crisis Fund is to provide financial and other assistance to working ranch cowboys and their families who are suffering significant hardship and who are not otherwise able to provide for their immediate needs. ~

Some dollar figures may be approximate. With the multiple processing of complex data and reliance upon information acquired from multiple sources, errors and omissions can and do occur despite reasonable commercial efforts to avoid them. DOUBLE REGISTERED HORSES: Neither QData nor Sale Company has any way of knowing when a horse has been double-registered in two breed registries. Although considerable effort is made to determine this, neither QData nor the Sale Company will be held responsible for the knowledge or inclusion of this information.

RECENT SHOW RESULTS:

In an effort to produce pedigrees as current as is possible, QData may obtain show results and earnings from preliminary results, which may not be official at time of catalog printing. Therefore, those placings and earnings could change, once show results have been finalized by the show management &/or association.
